Rules

- 1) Non-resident property owners pay the resident rate of $20.00. A current tax bill is required as proof of ownership
- 1) A seasonal renter of property can qualify for the lower non-resident rate ($50) if they provide a copy of their lease for at least 60 days along with a copy of a cancelled check for a lease payment.
- 3) A qualified seasonal renter who is over 65 or over can qualify for the lower rate ($50) non-resident sticker. Senior stickers are meant for Gloucester senior residents only.
- 4) A resident with a company owned vehicle is eligible for a sticker providing they present a letter on company letterhead, signed by an officer of the firm, stating that the employee has exclusive use of the vehicle. Dealer plates do not qualify for a sticker.
- 5) An unmarried live-in partner of a non-resident property owner may only qualify for a lower rate resident sticker ($20) if they share ownership in the Gloucester property. The live-in partner's name must show up on a tax bill as proof of ownership. If not, then they must pay the $250 rate for the non-resident sticker.
- 6) The spouse of a non-resident property owner qualifies for the resident rate ($20) if they can show proof of ownership with a tax bill or utility bill with their name on the bill.
- 7) Servicemen stationed in Gloucester may obtain a resident sticker ($20) with an official letter from their commanding officer confirming their residency in Gloucester.
- 8) Adult children 21 or over living with their parents with proof of residency (registration or license showing a Gloucester address) in order to obtain the $20 resident sticker.
- 9) Minor children under 21, but living at college may obtain a $20 resident sticker if they have a current and valid college identification card.
- 10) A non-resident commercial, industrial, professional and/or business owner who leases, but does not own, commercial space does not qualify for a sticker. The owner of the real estate, however, qualifies for the applicable resident sticker ($20).
- 11) To qualify for a senior sticker, you must be 65 years old during the calendar year of the beach season. E.g. for the 2011 season you must be born on or before 12/31/1946.
- 12) If a property is owned in trust, the sticker recipient must have proof that he is a beneficiary to qualify for a lower rate non-resident sticker. Residents qualify for a resident sticker without ownership proof.
- 13) Leased vehicles must show a lease agreement or an insurance policy.
- 14) Senior citizens must show valid drivers license and registration.
